

MY FIVE SENSES WALK

WHAT I SAW

A large empty rectangular box with a green border, intended for drawing or writing about what was seen. A simple line drawing of a blue eye with black eyelashes is positioned in the top right corner of the box.

WHAT I SMELLED

A large empty rectangular box with a green border, intended for drawing or writing about what was smelled. A simple line drawing of a brown nose is positioned in the top right corner of the box.

WHAT I HEARD

A large empty rectangular box with a green border, intended for drawing or writing about what was heard. A simple line drawing of a human ear is positioned in the top right corner of the box.

WHAT I TOUCHED

A large empty rectangular box with a green border, intended for drawing or writing about what was touched. A simple line drawing of a hand with the index finger pointing is positioned in the top right corner of the box.

WHAT I TASTED

A large empty rectangular box with a green border, intended for drawing or writing about what was tasted. A simple line drawing of red lips with a tongue sticking out is positioned in the top right corner of the box.